OBITUARY.
In the death of Enoch L. Chappell, 93, the town of Middlesex loses one of its oldest and best known residents.

Mr. Chappell was born in East Lyme, Sept. 22, 1825, but the family removed to Middlesex when he was only four years of age and he lived there until his retirement at the age of 70 years. During the Civil war he was engaged on large sugar contracts in Yaleville and was a member of the local militia.

Mr. Chappell was married to Mrs. Mary Chappell in 1849 and had five children. He was a member of the First Baptist church, Middlesex, and the Rev. B. U. Hatfield of the First Baptist church, Deep River.

After an illness of several weeks' duration, Orrin L. Main, a lifelong resident of this town, died at his home in that place Sunday morning. Death was due to Bright's disease. Mr. Main was 67 years of age, had been in failing health for some time. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Main and lived on Main street. He leaves a wife, one son, Noyes C. Main, of North Stonington, a daughter, Mrs. Elmore L. Pratt and Burton C. Pratt, of Hartford. Dr. F. G. Chappell of West Norwich, N. J., and the Rev. George C. Chappell of Montville. There are several grandchildren.
